

HCAL3320: Healthcare Organization and Supervision

Credit Hours: 3

Clock Hours: 45/0/0

This course covers the principles of organization and supervision of human, fiscal, and capital resources in the healthcare setting. The course allows students to apply basic principles of personnel supervision, including developments and considerations vital to the performances of supervisors in today's healthcare environment.