

NRSG3210: Professional Nursing Concepts

Credit Hours: 2

Clock Hours: 30/0/0

This course presents concepts central to nursing professional growth and practice including: specialties, professional nursing competencies and advanced practice nursing options. Information on professional practice standards, governing entities, professional organizations, and essential competencies associated with professional nursing will be explored. Specific information for effective study skills and learning in the on-line learning environment will be shared.