

PNVN1250: Intravenous Therapy

Credit Hours: 2

Clock Hours: 40/0/8

This course prepares the student to initiate treatment peripherally; administer parenteral solutions; change I.V. tubings; administer premixed medications; and maintain the patency of peripheral and central lines. Upon satisfactory completion of this course, the student will be I.V.-certified.